Downtown Summer Concert to Benefit High Quality Arts Education for Underserved Los Angeles Youth

April Los Angeles, Calif. — Inner-City Arts proudly announces “Summer on 7th 2019,” a summer concert benefit taking place on Saturday, June 8 on the Inner-City Arts campus (720 Kohler St., Los Angeles, CA 90021). All proceeds from this event support Inner-City Arts’ mission to provide high quality arts instruction and programming for underserved youth in Los Angeles.

Each summer, Inner-City Arts welcomes friends, supporters, and arts and culture lovers from across Los Angeles to its award-winning one-acre campus to celebrate the transformational power of creativity. Against the skyline of Downtown Los Angeles, over 1,000 guests enjoy a rooftop concert, interactive art installations, and libations and culinary delights from some of LA’s finest food and drink vendors.

This event, presented by Inner-City Arts and with concert by Spaceland Productions, will feature a performance by Best Coast and Shannon and the Clams, and special 45s B2B set with J.Rocc + Peanut Butter Wolf.

“Spaceland is proud to bring world-class musical acts to Summer on Seventh that represent the vitality and dynamism of this city, and support the mission of Inner-City Arts — bringing people together and building community,” said Mitchell Frank, Founder of Spaceland Productions and Summer on 7th Committee Co-Chair.

Inner-City Arts’ campus will be transformed by site-specific installations and neon art by artists: Dana Eitches, Davia King, Lisa Schulte, Ry Rocklen, and more. Guests will enjoy food and drink from an eclectic mix of established and up-and-coming vendors: Cassell’s Hamburgers, Chinese Laundry, Guerrilla Tacos, Pizzanista, Plant Food for People, Manuela, and more. Cocktails and drinks will be sold by Arts District Wine and Everson Royce Bar, the evening’s premier sponsors.

“Every year, I look forward to Summer on 7th,” said Geoffrey Anenberg, Summer on 7th Committee Co-Chair and Inner-City Arts Board Member. “I love getting to experience this beautiful campus and learning oasis being transformed into an amazing event space. For one night, over a thousand people from across Los Angeles come together to have fun in support of a future where our city’s youth are empowered through art.”

Additional participating artists, food trucks, and partners to be announced.

The event’s poster and design was created by Studio Number One.

ABOUT INNER-CITY ARTS

Founded in 1989, Inner-City Arts is a learning oasis in the heart of Downtown Los Angeles. Under the guidance of professional teaching artists, Inner-City Arts' students are immersed in a safe and supportive environment where they may engage in a variety of visual and performing art forms in a studio setting. Services include core classes during the instructional day for grade K-8 students, after school and weekend workshops for teens and creativity based professional development training for educators. Children who attend Inner-City Arts develop skills that are highly valued in the 21st century workforce such as collaboration, creativity and critical thinking.
