THANK YOU

to Board Chair

Jonathan Schreter

"I'm proud of many accomplishments during my time on the board — navigating the pandemic, participating in the executive search that brought us Shelby, and diving into strategic planning sessions to help chart our forward movement.

But I'm most proud of the establishment of the Barbara J. Schreter Scholarship. Since 2006, we've helped fund a start in college for more than 20 deserving students who saw Inner-City Arts as a launching pad to pursue their dreams. It's a tremendous legacy to my mother, who was a founding board member and a fierce advocate that all children, not just the privileged few, deserve an arts education."

-Jonathan Schreter

Urban Voices Project

Rooted in Skid Row through music, community, and openhearted inclusion of the most marginalized members of society, Urban Voices Project amplifies artistic expression to improve well being, strengthen social networks, and inspire individuals to be their own best advocates.

DJ Glenn Red

Glenn Red is a Manila-born, Los Angeles-based creative known for his work as half of Santa Monica's legendary Afro Funké Sound System and one-third of beloved Afro-Latin deejay/producer collective, La Junta.

Beaucoup Brass Band

The seven-piece brass band based in Los Angeles performs New Orleans Traditional Jazz and Street Funk.

Vince Caldera

Master of Ceremonies

Vince Caldera is a Mexican-American writer and comic based in Los Angeles. Along with being an Inner-City Arts student and staff alumnus, he has worked as a writer for Season Two of the Hulu comedy, "This Fool." Vince just recorded his debut stand-up album, "Up + Coming," and first hour-long special of the same name, which will be released later in 2023.

Caroline Dejenefte

Caroline Dejenefte is a French award-winning artist based in Los Angeles. She works across photography, installation, and painting to create evocative and immersive projects that explore different aspects of the human experience.

View her installation "Hope Floats" in the Rosenthal Theater.

Work of Art team

The Work of Art program at Inner-City Arts is a college and career exploration program designed to prepare teens with the skills, training, and real-world experience necessary to prepare them for life beyond high school.

Enjoy their performances in Rosenthal Theater and view their exhibit in the Gathering Space.

Eric Coleman

"I am grateful for the opportunity to support Inner-City Arts in its mission for so many years. As a board member and chair of the Governance Committee, I was fortunate to work with a team of extremely intelligent, passionate, and generous souls. And I loved the interaction with so many wonderful students, enjoying their performances, leading mock job interviews, etc. I will be rooting for Inner-City Arts' continued success for many years to come!"
